Gardens are seriously drying up in the almost unprecedented drought, and even if we should have rain at once, it would be too late to do much for the crops.

The wonder is that things can continue looking so green, considering the almost negligible amount of rain we have had in the last two months.

Corbett-Rines. Merton A. Corbett of Paris and Miss Edith E. Rines of Portland were united in marriage at the Paris Hill Baptist parsonage at 8 o'clock Monday afternoon, July 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shaw attended the wedding. The bride wore a blue tulle dress with blue trimmings. Mrs. Corbett is a native of Paris.

Soon afterward the bride couple left for a cottage at Locke's Mills, where they spent the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rines' daughter, Mrs. Rachel Rines of Portland, was graduated from Falmouth Academy, and has since been engaged in teaching at the school in Portland.

Mr. Corbett is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Aaron O. Corbett, who lived in Paris for many years.
